

CAROLINE GEYS, MIAMI CONTEMPORARY ARTIST & WELOVECOLORS.COM PAINT THE TOWN 51 SHADES & MORE!

(Miami, FL August 31, 2009) -- The most innovative fashion company that distributes hosiery and dance wear has collaborated with one of Miami's most celebrated emerging artists.

We Love Colors Incorporated designs various products and has join forces with Caroline Geys, one of the city's most talked about contemporary artists.

The company's product line satisfies the style hunger of the most discerning trendsetter - offering 51 colors in tights, leggings, stockings, fishnets, dresses, leotards, unitards and other hosiery items.

"It's amazing how our colors inspire artists to higher levels of creativity," said Craig Holmberg, Founder of We Love Colors. "We're excited about this new collaboration with Caroline; she is an amazingly talented artist that loves colors as much as we do!"

Caroline Geys has been showcasing her artwork since 2003. Her work embodies her vision of urban cities, which she has either visited or has dreamed of visiting. "I love color! I am always seeking new colors to paint with," she said. "After seeing the number of swatches on the site, it started fueling my color imagination! I knew then WLC and CG were destined to be a perfect match!"

Her color palette frequently changes according to her mood and which city she is using on her canvas, whether a large scale or small work.

We Love Colors is an online clothing company that has partnered with Caroline Geys to offer its customers a type of tight, that customers can select and purchase as their own unique pair representative of their unique style. Each item by Caroline Geys is a hand-made, one of kind piece of artwork and is part of a limited edition line.

You can buy a pair of Caroline Geys' footless tights or regulars tights for $45. The average price for We Love Colors hosiery ranges from $8 to $15. This is an exclusive opportunity to take advantage of purchasing unique items to wear or accessorize with your clothing.

Coming soon! We Love Colors will be offering leggings. Customers will also have the option to have Caroline Geys customize them with her unique, hand-painted designs.
